NEGRO LOYALTY MAGNIFICENTLY DEMONSTRATED

Spectacular Parade And Monster Gathering At Coliseum, Thursday, Greatest In History Of City. Thousands View Wonderful Patriotic Display.

Negro Loyalty Day was celebrated in St. Louis Thursday with the greatest and most magnificent demonstration by Colored people in the history of the city. The event was a patriotic benefit for the Colored Women's Unit, Council of National Defense. The arrangement consisted of a monster parade and wonderful mass meeting at the Coliseum. The Coliseum crowd was most remarkable because it is the first time in St. Louis since the declaration of war that thousands have paid to attend a patriotic meeting. It clearly demonstrtaes the undeniable loyalty of the Negro in this great strife for democracy. The entire proceedings were under the directorship of a woman—Mrs. Victoria Clay-Haley, chairman of the Colored Women's Unit, and much credit is due her and her able assistants for its glorious success.

The Big Parade

The parade started from Page and Grand without much delay. Thousands crowded the sidewalks along the line of march and cheered as the spectacle passed by. On Grand avenue a tremendous reception was tendered by a continuous line of whites in automobiles and on foot. A platoon of mounted police rode at the head, followed by the speakers in automobiles. Four bands, two union, the Pythian and the Odd Fellows,' were in line. Medinah Temple No. 39 led the marchers. They were followed by Shaw Post No. 343, G. A. R., several branches of the Masonic Lodge, the Reveler Girls' Club, the lady employees of the Missouri Bag Company, the Funsten Mercantile Company and the Denis Bag Company, St. Paul Church, Pythian Lodges, about 1,200 Class 1 drafted men, graduate nurses, Red Cross members, the St. Louis Boosters, Taborians, Elks and Lady Elks, Y. W. C. A., Women's Defense Councils, Hawaiian Boys' Social Club, a number of girls' clubs and citizens in automobiles.

Maj. William H. Butler was grand marshal. Traffic was congested along Grand avenue and several cross-streets. All of the marching clubs wore distinctive uniforms and were lustily cheered, especially the drafted boys. The Boosters wore expensive pearl-gray Fedoras, silk red white and blue ties, and carried canes of the national colors. The nurses and Red Cross members were appropriately dressed, and all participants except uniform lodges carried the Stars and Stripes.

At the Coliseum

The mammoth procession reached the Coliseum at 8:30 o'clock. Twelve hundred drafted men of Class "A," the guard of honor, Gen. William H. Butler in command, led by First Regiment Band, K. of P., marched in, then around the convention hall, amid showers of applause from the vast audience of patriotic and loyal citizens. Banners were borne by many of the draftees with the inscription in glaring letters, "Our boys are facing death in France; back them up." Before the men were seated enthusiasm was at its height and instantly, with loud acclaim, as though their souls were touched with fire, hundreds of voices were heard singing "Keep the Home Fires Burning" in honor of the Class "A" men, who are in the June draft.

A chorus composed of pupils of Sumner High, under the direction of Mr. Gerald Tyler, rendered choice music. Rev. S. W. Parr, pastor Berea Presbyterian Church, led in fervent prayer for the race, country and for the soldiers on the fields of battle. "Send Out Thy Light" was sung by the high school chorus, after which Mrs. Victoria Clay-Haley, chairman, Colored Women's Unit, Council of National Defense, in stating the purpose of the demonstration, said, "We are here tonight to rededicate our lives to our country. While thousands of our boys are fighting 'over there' we should assure them that we shall be praying here. If the war is to be won it is to be done through prayer." She read a telegram from Theodore Roosevelt, expressing his regrets, saying he would have been pleased to attend. "I have a great respect for what the Negroes in the country are doing, and I am proud that I fought side by side with them in the Spanish War," he wrote.

The chairman presented Dr. B. F. Abbott, pastor Union Memorial M. E. Church, who made a few well-chosen remarks, and introduced Postmaster Colin M. Selph, who spoke on the subject, "Winning the War." He complained of a sore throat, but with a clear and resounding voice declared with great force that the Negro was doing his bit for this country. He paid a glowing tribute to Henry Turner, the Negro artist whose paintings are in the Hall of Fame in Paris, France. "The first American to carry the flag over the top was a Colored man. The first two medals of honor awarded by Gen. Pershing were to men of your race. You've heard of the Blue Devils of France; the Imperial Whites of England, etc., when the drafted boys, who sit behind me get 'over there' and have finished with the Kaiser, you will hear of the Black Devils of America," said the Postmaster.

Dr. Charles Henry Phillips Jr., was the next speaker. After complimenting Mrs. Haley for her indomitable efforts to make the Negro Loyalty Day a success, he electrified the great throng with a few remarks that were filled with solid thought and brilliant ideas. Referring to the draftees, he stated: "The Negro boys sit here tonight, happy or with reluctance; whatever their condition is, they are going forth to make this world safe for democracy." Ringing like a shot from a heavy army gun, the Doctor said further: "And when they return, America must be safe for them. The black man has always been loyal and has never shirked since the day of the landing of Columbus to the rule of Woodrow Wilson."

Mr. Findly, a representative of Mayor Kiel, was presented by Dr. Phillips. His talk was punctured with expression of confidence in the Negro's patriotism. The statement, "Boys who are courageous enough to go over 3,000 miles to fight are courageous enough to win," met with an outburst of applause. He also said: "You could not keep the Negroes from fighting if their hands were bound with twine."

Mr. Festus J. Wade, director of the War Savings Committee, was programed for an address, and without any preliminaries reviewed the undaunted fidelity of the Negro. Speaking of the men of Class "A," he said: "Is there any reason why these men will not bring back victory? It was a black man in the Spanish-American War who made a President of the United States. The black men at Carrizal made Pershing General of the United States Army." Mr. Wade said that in all of his experience in St. Louis he had never seen a more inspiring audience than was present Thursday night at the Coliseum. He said, further, "There is a doctrine laid down by some misguided people that the Negro is wasteful." He declared it is a fallacy and admonished his hearers to economize by seeing to it that a portion is saved of whatever amount of money they earn. Regarding the question of color, he continued: "You talk about color, but your blood is just as red as any white man's in America.

"We are fighting against a slavery greater than that of '61 and '63. We are fighting to free the people of all nationalities and climes.

"In all the annals of history there was never known to be a Negro traitor. When the flag is placed 'over there' a Negro will be there, too, to typify it."

The Negro in the World's Crisis

Dr. W. H. Peck, pastor of St. James A. M. E. Church, was asked to introduce Dr. W. S. Scarborough, President of Wilberforce University, who delivered the principal address. The scholarly gentleman rose with his usual striking appearance, and yet cool and deliberate, with polished English, said, in part, as follows:

"A man would either be steel or iron if he were not moved by a demonstration like this. I have visited many cities and traveled extensively, and I find a spirit of co-operation on the part of the white and Colored people of St. Louis that I don't find elsewhere.

"If there ever was a time in our history when the American people ought to forget race and lay aside race discrimination, it is now. If there ever was a time in our American life when brotherly love and kindly feeling should prevail throughout the length and breadth of this land of ours it is certainly now. Any other policy is dangerous and means the alienation of those whose help is needed.

"Now is the time when we need and must have a united people, regardless of race or color. It will take a united people to win this war, and this can only be brought about by forgetting race distinctions and race discriminations, and by treating the Negro people like other citizens—as men, regardless of their color. The man who encourages lynchings or advocates race segregation, or any form of proscription that degrades and humiliates a people because of color, may be classed with the pro-German element and should be dealt with accordingly. No punishment is too severe to be inflicted upon men of this type, especially in times like these.

"The Negro is loyal and patriotic. He is no slacker nor is he a coward. He is a fighter, and a brave one at that. History proves this. No further testimony is needed. All he asks is a chance."

President Scarborough spoke of the causes of this war and the United States as one of the allied nations and the Negro's duty in this great struggle. He thought that there were many evidences now of a new democracy in the treatment of Negro soldiers and that the race problem would be solved and solved by the Negro in khaki.

HOWARD U. ELECTS NEW PRESIDENT

Special to The Argus.

Washington, D. C., June 10.—Rev. J. Stanley Durkee, Ph.D., for many years pastor of the famous South Congregational Church, of Campello, Brockton, Mass., one of New England's most influential religious organizations, was unanimously chosen as president of Howard University at a meeting of the board of trustees held on Tuesday of last week. The selection was made by a rising vote, and only the one name was offered for consideration. The merits and superior availability of Dr. Durkee were most eloquently presented by Dr. J. E. Moorland, international secretary of Y. M. C. A., and secretary of the special committee delegated by the board to suggest a suitable man for the headship of the University.

Gracious Tribute to the Retiring President, Dr. Newman

Dr. Stephen Morrell Newman, after a faithful service of six years, retires voluntarily from the presidency to engage in literary work. He indicated by the tender of his resignation nearly two years ago his desire to take up a less onerous task because of his advancing age. Dr. Newman was tendered a unanimous vote of thanks by the trustees for his efficient and consecrated labors in behalf of the institution and fitting resolutions were likewise adopted. Recently, as a testimonial of their appreciation and good will, the faculty and officers presented to Dr. Neyman a beautiful silver loving cup.

THE PEOPLES HOSPITAL

About 25 yeas ago a number of prominent white and Colored men founded the Provident Hospital annd Training School for nurses. This institution did creditable work in this city until the building in which it was located became inadequate. The charter under which the association operated was not democratic enough to meet the increased needs. The charter has been revised and the name changed to the Peoples Hospital Association. On June 6 the Association elected the following Board of Directors: A. M. Cloyd, M. J. Gilliam, T. L. Gentry, F. D. George, R. A. James, C. L. Lightfoot, J. W. Myers, C. H. Turner, J. L. Usher, J. L. Velar, Jos. E. Wilkinson, Frank L. Williams, Mrs. Nellie Agee, Mrs. A. W. Craddock, Mrs. T. J. Nevins. The board organized with M. J. Gilliam President; J. L. Usher, First vice-President; F. D. George, Second vice-President; C. H. Turner, Secretary; J. W. Myers, Treasurer. The Association has purchased the magnificent building located at Theresa and Pine Sts., and has paid $1,000 on same and is to pay $1,000 July 1, 1918.

Owing to the high cost of living, the good people of Macon are compelled to charge the small amount of seventy-five cents a day for our entertainment, which is nothing in comparison to what good we will get out of the meeting, and the royal manner the Allen C. E. League of Macon will entertain us.

RED CROSS DENIES DISCRIMINATIONS

Joseph R. Hamlen of the National Headquarters of the American Red Cross Society, in answer to an inquiry sent out from the office of Emmett J. Scott, special assistant to the Secretary of War, declares, among other things, that the services of the Red Cross are being "rendered to the white and Colored officers and enlisted men alike, and without distinction." Mr. Hamlen says: "No distinction whatever is being made because of the color of the enlisted men. Sweaters and other knitted goods and comforts have been distributed to white and Colored alike. We are rendering the same service to the families of white and Colored alike. Emergency supplies are furnished at the request of Colored officers, and in the hospitals, our men who do communication work, write letters at the request of enlisted men, without distinction because of color."

He cites an instance of the severe cold spell last winter when 2,500 sweaters in a few hours and 10,000 within 10 days were furnished drafted men in a cantonment, a majority going to Colored men.

As to the Use of Colored Red Cross Nurses

The situation with regard to the use of Colored Red Cross nurses is a matter which also is now receiving the attention of the War Department. The Secretary of War, Mr. Scott advises, will soon announce through the Office of the Surgeon General the decision with reference to the utilization of the many competent women of the race who have so cheerfully registered their willingness to aid in the winning of the war by serving as nurses in the military hospitals at home and abroad.

BIBLE CHAUTAUQUA

All preparations for the meetings of the Colored Bible Chautauqua which is to begin Sunday night at 8:00 o'clock in the cloth tabernacle at Lucas and Leffingwell have been completed.

All of the meetings of the Chautauqua will be under the direction of Evangelist U. S. Willis who has conducted similar meetings in Atlanta, Ga., Washington, D. C., and other cities. The first sermon of the Chautauqua will be delivered Sunday night, the subject being "God's Hammer."

A feature of unusual interest to be introduced in connection with the meetings here will be a question-and-answer service after each address, at which time it will be the privilege of anyone in the audience to ask any question on a Bible or religious subject.

Associated with Mr. Willis will be an efficient corps of workers. Bible instruction will be given free of charge in the homes of those who request it, by two excellent teachers, Mrs. L. B. Wilson and Mrs. L. V. Smith.

Meetings will be held every night except Saturday night beginning at 8:00 p. m. Each service will be pre-

Olivet Bapt. Church Launches Drive

The Olivet Baptist Church located at 4200 Finney Ave., (formerly the Whittier Baptist Church, 1108 N. Whittier St.,) under the leadership of its young pastor, Rev. J. L. Caston, has launched a drive for $500 by the second Sunday in July, for the purpose of remodeling and equipping its new home which it recently purchased at 4200 Finney Ave.

The first effort will be made on the fourth Sunday in this month at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, 2726 Pine St., when at least half of the proposed $500 is expected to be raised. Readers of the Argus will remember our announcement a few weeks ago of the splendid progress made by this energetic and God-fearing people.

A big loyalty meeting of all the Baptists in St. Louis is to be held at the above church on the aforementioned date, at which time it is expected that the people will show their honor and esteem for the leaders whose names are presented in another column of this paper.

The interest and services held in this church, we are told, are increasing and the splendid attendance warrants immediate action on the part of the church. Five hundred dollars will put them in position to accommodate 300 more people, besides greatly enhancing the comfort of the worshipers.

The pastor has announced that on Sunday morning he will preach from the subject, "The Pale Horse and His Rider," (a war sermon) and on Sunday night a new phase of "Genesis I," will be presented. A departmental Sunday school awaits the children at 1:00 p.m., under the splendid superintendency of Mr. Benjamin Elazer. Everyone is welcome to all services.

AFTER USING BLACK AND WHITE OINTMENT

PLOUGH CHEMICAL CO., Memphis, Tenn.

Dear Sir: I received your letter, also Black and White Ointment, and am well pleased with it. It is so fine the short while I have used it, I am enclosing two pictures of myself—one before and one after using, although I am a shade brighter than the light one. It has had great results with me. I have already sold a great deal of the Black and White. They are asking about it every day, so please let me have the order as soon as possible.

MRS. M. E. ABERNATHY, 5709 Gaston Ave., Dallas, Tex.

After reading the above letter our readers should be convinced that we have a great scientific preparation in Black and White Ointment for bleaching their skin and giving you a soft, clear, bright smooth complexion. You simply rub Black and White Ointment on your face, neck, hands and arms, as per simple directions printed on the package. It clears and bleaches your complexion—makes dark or sallow skins bright, light, smooth and of that soft delicate tint so much desired. Black and White Ointment is pleasant to apply. It also heals pimples and eruptions, risings and roughness of the skin, making it smooth, bright, light and healthy, removes freckles and tan.

Improve Your Looks--Rush in Your Order--Try Black and White

Send 25c (coin or stamps) and receive a large box of Black and White Ointment sent you by return mail, or send $1.00 and we will send you 3 boxes of Black and White Ointment and 2 cakes (25c each) of Black and White Soap. By sending $1 you get $1.25 worth of our preparations.

DEMOCRACY

A Democracy is Founded Upon Equal Rights, Equal Duties and Equal Responsibilities For All Citizens.

APPROACHING ELECTION

There are quite a number of aspirants for the offices which are to be filled at the coming election. And now that all the candidates have filed their declarations and are asking the suffrage of the people, it is the duty of the voter to look them over carefully, and make a diligent inquiry as to their qualifications and fitness before he decides to support them.

This is very important and especially to the Negro. There are those among the candidates, whose records are full of broken promises; besmirched with race prejudice, and bias on all questions where the Negro's rights are concerned.

At the primary election is the proper time and place to exercise the best judgment.

The Argus will, as it has done in the past, give the records of these men for the benefit of its readers.

We owe our allegiance to men and measures that are fair and just to our race, but we should set our faces like flint against those who are prejudiced and who seek to hinder our progress.

ONE HUNDRED PER CENT. EFFICIENCY

One-hundred per cent. efficiency of our man-power is essential in the great conflict that confronts the nation just now. When the war broke out in Europe four years ago, this country naturally was not prepared; but we are preparing now. It is the duty of the nation to see that every man that is called or is subject to call, be he black or white, is given the opportunity to register 100 per cent. in efficiency.

We are very much gratified with the statement that nearly four-thousand Negroes are soon to be selected for special training in mechanical and scientific courses, which are being offered by the government. This is right and as it should be. The Negro has made good. He has shown to the world that he is capable of mastering the sciences as other men. This is a step in the right direction on the part of the government. It should go just a step farther: Colored men will make good gunners for our navy. It is, however, humiliating to say, that they only make good "mess attendants." Too, they will make good volunteer soldiers; but, it is mortifying, when we think of them as being best fitted as stevedores. They make good in all places of trust. We venture to say that there would be less fire which destroys property valued at millions of dollars and hundred of lives, if Negroes were given more places of trust. There are hundred of ways in which the Negro could render the nation valuable service if he were only given a chance. Why should he be kept back? Why not give the Negro the opportunity to register one-hundred per cent. efficiency?

The Indian Drill and Folk Dance by pupils of Banneker School was one of the most spectacular features of the program. The dancing by 24 little girls demonstrated special training. Twenty-one boys composed a drill team that was almost perfect in their maneuver. Miss Catherine White, a teacher of Banneker School, directed the exercises.

An exhibition in aesthetic dancing was given by a number of young ladies under the direction of Miss Williams. There were nearly 1,000 persons in the big audience.

NEGRO USES DEAD FOX TO CATCH 6 HUN DOGS

With the American Army in France, June 7.—A wise Alabama Negro used novel means to capture a number of German dogs that had been employed to carry important dispatches to the front line from the rear posts. He got leave to go hunting and killed a fox. Then he crept across No Man's Land at night and dragged the fox back along the ground from the German trenches. The following day six German messenger dogs came bounding into the American trenches, their noses to the ground, following the scent.

LANE TABERNACLE

The Sunday-school effort was a great triumph. The teachers were all greatly enthused, and every class raised over its assessment. Sixty dollars was the amount realized which was over $15 more than the superintendent had asked for. The Morning Star class led with $18. This class will get the contest ticket to the District Convention. The New Progressive class raised $9. The New Liberty class made a fine start Sunday morning. Rev. Parrish says he will take this class and break the Morning Star's supremacy. Our presiding elder, Dr. J. W. Jacobs seems to preach better every time he visits us. The big banquet sermon Sunday morning filled every heart with joy. Sunday evening Dr. Jacobs put pep in the services with his excellent songs. Rev. Smith will preach at both services Sunday. Come to Sunday school Sunday at 9:30 a.m., and join the New Liberty class.

MT. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH
1429 N. Twelfth St.

The pastor preached both morning and night last Sunday and the whole day was one of supreme joy to all. A busy pulsating and a live throng of worshipers shared the day and its joys with us. The morning sermon, selected from Matt. 3:9, dealt mainly with the self-satisfied Christian; a just and goodly feast to those that hath ears. One convert was baptized. The evening covenant showed a revelation in its intensity of passionate hunger after Godliness and the obliteration of self. The text at night was even more profound and soulful, "Love one another as I have loved you" (Jno 13:34), which was delivered after much careful study and prayer with telling effects on the hearers.

Every heart seemed to melt and blend with the appeals of the speaker for unity and love until one felt instinctively drawn to his fellow-man and love shone its beams on all through this medium to the glory of God.

Holy communion was observed in an atmosphere of spiritual calm that was bordering the heavenly.

The young converts club was organized last week and Monday night the officers were duly installed by Rev. J. W. Gaines, the organizer, presiding. The evening was a delightful and impressive one, with a fight program, and refreshments.

The June rally begins next Monday night with the Executive Board of the Antioch Association in attendance. Rev. P. W. Dunnavant, moderator, presiding. Tuesday night the Sunday schools will entertain, with Bro. M. Roland presiding. Wednesday night, Mrs. E. Boland will preside over the B. Y. P. U.'s program. Thursday night, the mission circle's night, in conjunction with Children's Band, will be presided over by Mrs. Anna Brown. The public is urgently requested to be with us nightly. Great things are in store for those who fear and trust God. Will you ally yourselves to a cause that is just? Rev. D. W. Morris, pastor.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear son, and our brother, Excelsior Robinson, who departed this life June 15, 1917.

In silence you suffered,
In patience you bore,
'Till God called you home,
To suffer no more.

Although you are now sleeping peacefully,
In Greenwood's quiet shade,
Our love and prayer dear son and brother,
For you shall never fade.

Sadly missed by mother, Harriett Robinson; sisters, Lulu Reynolds, Mammie Green, and brother, Lawrence Robinson.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear daughter, Murriel C. Pendleton, who entered into paradise June 15, 1917. Loved in life, missed in death.

Silently the shades of evening
Gather around my lonely door,
Silently they bring before me
The sweet face I see no more.

Days of sadness still come o'er me,
Tears in silence often flow,
For memory keeps you ever near me,
Though you died just one year ago.

It's only for a little while,
Life's journey soon is o'er,
But toward the end it's sweet to know,
In death we part no more.

Sadly missed by mother, Beulah Pendleton.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our darling little Louise Sherman, who entered into rest June 30, 1917.

A loving one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.

Mrs. E. Morris, grandmother.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our baby who died June 12, 1917.

A loving one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled,
We loved you well
But God loved you best.

Sadly missed by mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gearin.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Isabella Bush, who departed this life June 15, 1916.

The month of June once more is here,
To me the saddest of the year,
Memory of grandmother is dear today
As the hour you passed away.

You are not forgotten dearest one,
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last,
I will remember thee.

Your devoted granddaughter, Annie Bell Malcom, 2330 Scott Ave.

Indigestion Cured.

St. Louis, Mo., May 7, 1915.

I suffered with stomach trouble for fourteen years. Had tried several remedies and physicians and received little benefit. I was advised to try Dr. Thurman's Embrocation with the Blood and Liver Tablets, and I am happy to say I am cured. It has been two years and no return of my trouble. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. I advise all to try this wonderful combination of medicines.

Respectfully,
MRS. ALICE DICKISON,

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 8, 1913.

I have suffered with my stomach for eighteen years. I took treatments from several doctors and tried many different kinds of patent medicines without good results until I tried Dr. Thurman's Embrocation, Blood and Liver Tablets, and I am happy to say after I took the third bottle I felt like a different man. I can now eat any kind of food without having any ill effect. I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Thurman's medicines to anyone having stomach trouble.

TO GROW LONG STRAIGHT HAIR

You Need A Real Scalp Food

There are so many so-called hair growers on the market, a large number of which are nothing more than perfumed grease, it is no wonder people get discouraged and lose faith in all hair tonics. In deciding what to use on your scalp, be sure and get a remedy of proven merit. Seeby's Quinade is a highly medicated pomade that has stood the test of time. It is a real scalp food; it stimulates and nourishes the roots of the hair, causing a natural growth of long hair.

Quinade is the invention of an expert chemist and is made under the supervision of an experienced registered pharmacist. It makes the hair soft and smooth and easy to put up in the style desired.

To get the best results from the use of Quinade, it is necessary to shampoo the scalp about every two weeks with Seeby's Quinasoap. Quinasoap is made entirely out of pure vegetable oils, principally cocoanut oil, and is a thorough cleanser. Quinasoap lathers very freely. It leaves the hair soft and fluffy and imparts a refreshing feeling to the scalp unequalled by any other shampoo.

Do not accept any substitute, but insist on getting Seeby's Quinade and Seeby's Quinasoap, asking for them by the full name. Price is 25 cents each. If your druggist or dealer does not stock these two articles, ask him to obtain them for you from his wholesaler or send us the price and we will mail them to you. Write to Seeby Drug Co., 79 East 130th street, New York City, for a sample of Quinade mentioning the name of this paper.—Adv.

U.S. FUEL ADMINISTRATION

AS NEAR AS YOUR TELEPHONE. DISTANCE IMMATERIAL

In a metropolitan city of this size, there are people who constantly suffer with their feet, and who try every remedy available; even old knives and razors to obtain relief. Let the price you pay for these remedies be a business propostion and have the cause removed; it will benefit you in dollars and cents.

Too often by trying every remedy and old instruments not only brings sorrow to the sufferer, but may bring misfortune and cause death to knock at your door.

The time has arrived when we should look forward and not backward in caring for our feet. When nature put forth man upon the earth, every bone, muscle, nerve and ligament was normal, but most people transgress the laws of nature by abusing their feet with ill-fitting foot-wear and cause corns, bunions, ingrowns and many other growths to migrate there.

My new system of extracting these growths without pain has won for me a nice practice in this city.

My many years of practice and careful study of the foot is your assurance of good work. A call will convince you. DR. E. JUNIOR TURNER, chiropodist, 4257w Labadie Ave., phone Colfax 1097-J. Hours 8 to 10 a.m.; 2 to 3 p.m. Sunday by appointment.

AN UNUSUAL AND HIGH-CLASS LOT OFFER

Here is your opportunity to invest a small amount of money and secure an excellent building lot in beautiful Orchardville, a townsite adjoining Homestead Orchard, the large co-operative fruit orchard in Benzine County, Michigan.

Unlike other town lots, instead of waiting for them to increase in value in order to make a profit out of them, lots in Beautiful Orchardville will be made to earn money for you even before they increase in value. The lots are 30 feet wide and 144 feet long, making excellent building lots, and will be improved by us in such a way as to make them work for you for a great many years, earning handsome yearly profits on your investment.

The Price Of These Lots Including
The Cost Of All The Work We Do
Is Only

$47.50 each

Payable At The Rate Of $5.00
Down And $2.50 Per Month.

Lack of space here prevents us from giving you all the details of this unusual offer, but we have a circular which fully explains every particular of it and which we will be glad to send you on request. The circular explains how and why the proposition was originated, how each lot will be improved and developed, and shows you the possible returns on the investment. This is an entirely new proposition, and nothing like it, to our knowledge has ever been offered before

It is meeting with remarkable success and the demand for the lots is increasing every day. The number of lots is limited and from all indications we believe that they will all be sold in a comparatively short time. Quick action is therefore necessary, and we suggest that you send for full particulars at once.

In addition to the circular on Orchardville, we will also send you one of our beautiful booklets, "The Road to Independence" which gives you many bits of interesting information about Homestead Orchard and Benzie County, Michigan. Both the circular and the booklet are well worth reading, and by sending for them you will not place yourself under any obligations.

Fill out and mail the attached coupon today. Write plainly.

THEATRES

GOOD SINGING AT THE BOOKER

Miss Irene Howard, the cornetist, and George Day, tenor are featuring a good program at the Booker Washington Theater this week. Singing is the feature of the entire bill and in this the above talented pair are par excellence. The team is one of the classiest that visits this theatre. Their line of conversation is original and contains several robust jokes that make a big hit. Mr. Day sings "Joan of Arc," with a race parody that is a knock out. Miss Howard scores with her cornet solo, and incidentally wears a very rich gown. Every number offered by this artistic pair draws hearty applause.

Akers and Jackson mix a lot of original talk in a repertoire of several popular song numbers. Little Hattie Akers was formerly the comedy soubrette of the Smart Set. She still retains her magnetism. Mr. Jackson is an excellent baritone. The act pleases and wins applause.

Edith Goodall has three good song numbers and does a little dancing. She has a strong voice and puts plenty of vim in her singing.

George Casmay, dancer, singer and ridiculer, has an original style of eccentricity that requires time to appreciate. In his rendition of "The Peacock," the song and dance of a dandy, he scores a big hit.

SECOND FEATURE OF "BRITAIN'S BULWARKS," MONDAY

The capture of Messines, the important key town between Ypres and Arras, by the British in June, 1917, is graphically shown in "Messines and Its Irish Captors," the second feature of the "Britain's Bulwarks" series, released by Pathe at Booker Washington Theatre next Monday night, June 17, and giving vivid scenes from all phases of the great world war.

Added interest attaches to this feature because of the great conflicts waged over the same territory in the gigantic battle on the western front.

At 3:10 on the morning of the attack nineteen mammoth mines are exploded simultaneously beneath the German positions. Hundreds of tons of explosives are used and we see one of the craters; sixty feet deep, caused by the explosion.

The Australians and Irish troops move forward along what was once a beautiful roadway, and Messines is taken. But the Germans reluctantly give up the important position and it is shelled for many hours after taken over by the British troops.

Finally, we see the Dublin Fusileers proudly displaying their German trophies captured from the defeated Huns.

NEXT WEEK'S BILL

Dunbar's Tennessee Ten Company was at The Empress the first half of this week.

C. E. Handy, of Handy Brothers, music publishers, of Memphis, was in St. Louis a couple of days this week.

W. S. HART AT THE COMET THEATRE SUNDAY

One of Wm. S. Hart's best pictures showing the great action in his best, entitled, "THE BETTER WAY," will be shown at the Comet Theatre Sunday, June 16.

Roy Stewart, the Triangle fearless western character actor will be shown at the Movie Sunday, June 16, entitled, "THE BOSS OF THE LAZY Y."

Mr. James, who owns the Movie and Comet Theatres located at 2351 and 2121 Market St., is employing as many if not more Colored people in a clerical way than any other theatre in the city of St. Louis. He deserves our unswerving support and the Colored people are not failing to show their approval for the courteous treatment and ready donations received at his hands. Without any reflection on any other moving picture theatre, his plays are generally high class, hence the overflowing crowds, daily.

F. Hawkins.

WEATHER PREDICTIONS

By C. F. Collins

For St. Louis and vicinity, Friday, somewhat cloudy with probably showers. Saturday, Sunday and Monday, generally fair and warm. Not much change in temperature.

FIVE DOLLAR FORFEIT

Rev. Collins styles himself as a mentalist and claims to be able to tell accurately the kind of weather that will take place in St. Louis at least seven days ahead of time. In this way picnickers and those giving entertainments can by consulting him know the kind of weather that will fall on their dates. To convince the public, he has put up a forfeit of $5.00 to be paid to any one who desires to test his powers. All you have to do is to call at the Argus office and designate the date you desire to know the weather. He will tell you correctly or forfeit to the person $5.00.

Since the drafting of our Colored boys has caused to be sent back to us a number of Players, we now have used Players in our headquarters from $140 up. They have been part paid for, and you can buy them for the balance due at your own terms. Come to my store at once and investigate this opportunity. I can save you money on Player Pianos. SUNDAY
DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, IN

"A Modern Musketeer"

In the latest Douglas Fairbanks production released by Artcraft will be shown at the Pendleton Theatre, Sunday, in which Fairbanks plays the title role of "A Modern Musketeer," some remarkable night photography is introduced in scenes showing the Hopi Indians doing their "rain" and "corn" dances. These scenes were made possible by the use of flares, which cast a weird light over the dancers, and were taken in a Hopi village in Arizona, on the rim of the Grand Canyon.

MONDAY
WALLACE REID, IN

"The Hostage"

"Your favorite leading man whom you admired so much in "Carmen," "The Golden Chance," and many other Paramount pictures, is coming to the Pendleton Theatre Monday in a new play. It is called "THE HOSTAGE," and was written to fit his personality by Beaulah Marie Dix.

TUESDAY
PAULINE FREDERICK, IN

"Double-Crossed"

Were you ever double-crossed? Probably at some time in your life you believe somebody has double-crossed you for personal gain or to do you an injury, but Pauline Frederick, in "Double-Crossed," does this to save the reputation of her husband. Surely you will be interested in seeing this on Tuesday at the Pendleton Theatre.

WEDNESDAY
JEWEL CARMEN, IN

"The Girl With The Champagne Eyes"

This photoplay gives Miss Carmen a splendid opportunity to exhibit not only her beauty but also her talent. She begins as a pickpocket. Then love comes and raises her into the sunshine of nobler things. Francis Carpenter, the Jack of "Jack and the Beanstalk" and Aladdin of "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" is a big aid to the girl during her many trials.

THURSDAY
DOROTHY DALTON, IN

"Tyrant Fear"

This girl was the victim of fear, but she threw off the burden as you will see in "Tyrant Fear," which will be shown at the Pendleton on Thursday.

FRIDAY
WILLIAM FARNUM, IN

"Rough and Ready"

William Farnum is essentially a man of action, a man who does things, a man who conquers, and he has attained the highest point of popularity with picturegoers throughout the world. His newest de luxe production, "ROUGH AND READY," at the Pendleton Theatre next Friday.

SATURDAY, JUNE 22
CHARLES RAY, IN

"Playing the Game"

"A Prince of the House of Hangover"—this is the title carried by Larry Prentiss, until he left the lure of the Broadway lights and went to Arizona to become a man. This is the theme of the story, "Playing the Game," a new Paramount picture in which Charles Ray, the Thomas H. Ince star, will be seen at the Pendleton Theatre next Saturday, June 22.

It is a splendid production, beautifully done and aside from its many thrills, has a distinct heart appeal.

MME. FLORENCE COLE-TALBERT PLEASES BIG AUDIENCE

The large auditorium of Union Memorial Church was well filled last Monday night with an enthusiastic audience which was grandly entertained by Mrs. Florence Cole-Talbert, one of the race's most noted songsters. Mrs. Talbert artistically rendered three plantation melodies arranged by our Negro composer, Harry T. Burleigh, and "Ah forse' e lui," from the Italian opera La Traviata. This opera won for Mrs. Talbert a diamond medal about two years ago in Chicago, where she sang at the Auditorium against many contestants. Mr. Gerald Tyler was at the piano.

NOTICE!

Jesse J. Johnson, the well known dancer, has arranged it so there will be no war tax attached to the fare on he steamer Liberty. The fare from ow on will be 35 cents.
